Painting Workshop: Lyudmila Tomova Clark
February 14, 15, 2023

Lyudmila Tomova Clark, respected and well-known artist from Raleigh, will be presenting a workshop at the Associated Artists of Southport/ Franklin Square Gallery on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 14 and 15, 2023, 10-4. The topic of the workshop is “Creative Watercolor with a Unique Impressionistic Style.” Here is some information about Lyudmila:

Lyudmila Tomova is a rising star on the Triangle art scene. Her recent watercolors have attracted much attention locally and nationally with the expressive brushwork, color, line and a stylized flair that emphasize movement bringing the images to life. She has received numerous awards and recognition for her masterfully executed work which uniquely merges abstract and realistic elements together creating mood and energy. Originally from Sofia, Bulgaria, Lyudmila immigrated to the US twenty-five years ago and lived in New York City being a full-time painter, editorial illustrator, designer and digital artist, exhibiting nationally and abroad. Her strong education in Classical realism from the Sophia Academy of Fine Arts and later from FIT in New York where she studied Illustration, as well as her diverse artistic experience of over 20 years has helped her establish herself as one of the most versatile and prolific artists in the Triangle. She was nominated as an Emerging Woman 2016 and personally recognized at the NC Museum of Art. Lyudmila resides in Cary and has a watercolor workshop at the Village Art Circle gallery.

Registration is limited to 15 participants. The cost of the workshop is $210 for AAS members, $260 for non-members. Please make checks payable to AAS and deliver to: Diane Sloan, 509 Moore Street, Southport, NC 28461.

For additional information contact Diane Sloan at 910-368-6098.
